- Fire crackers
- Rhinoceros horn (worked, unworked or prepared and the any part, power of waste of such horn)
- Endangered species of wildlife and products derived from the body of such animals
- Prohibited telecommunication equipment, eg scanning receivers, military communication equipment, telephone voice changing equipment, radio-communication jamming devices operating in any frequency band, obscene articles, publications and video tapes or discs, seditious and treasonable materials
- Chewing tobacco, Imitation tobacco products, Shisha, Smokeless cigars, cigarillos or cigarettes, dissolvable tobacco or nicotine, any product containing nicotine or tobacco, any solution or substance, of which tobacco or nicotine is a constituent, nasal/oral snuff, Gutkha, khaini and zarda

Controlled goods require proper authorization (advance notification, license or certificate approval) from Competent Authorities before they may be imported into Singapore. Please supply us with details of your goods so we can advise documents required for the different types of products. Please refer to Singapore Customs web site for full listing (www.customs.gov.sg)

PERMANENT/ FINAL IMPORTATION

All goods sold, disposed, distributed at the end of the exhibition are subjected to GST payment. GST is levied at 7% (Non-Refundable) of the CIF value. Banking fee is applicable for GST paid on behalf for exhibitors.

TEMPORARY IMPORTATION

All goods (excluding intoxicating liquors, tobacco, brochures, pamphlets, gifts or souvenirs and other give-away items) for use at exhibition, fairs or other similar events can be temporarily imported without payment of GST. You may either use ATA Carnet or the Temporary Import Scheme for importing such goods temporary.

ATA Carnet:

A foreign entity (e.g. foreign exhibitor) can use an ATA carnet to temporarily import goods into Singapore goods for display or use at exhibition, fairs or other similar events. The goods are allowed to be imported into Singapore for a period of 6 months from the date of importation.

Temporary Import Scheme - Raised By Schenker Singapore (Pte) Ltd:

Schenker Singapore (Pte) Ltd can provide a Banker's Guarantee on your behalf for exhibition goods under Temporary Import Scheme. This procedure involves raising a bank guarantee to Customs to cover the potential (Goods & Services Tax) GST/Duty liability.

Goods for exhibitions may be imported 3 weeks before the exhibition and be re-exported within 3 weeks of the closure of the exhibition. Requests for extension of these periods must be made in writing (with reasons stated) to Head, Company Compliance Branch. Such requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be granted if there are cogent reasons

Please note that we are not in a position to handover any return freight to other third party agents as temporary import guarantees are lodged in our name and customs formalities must be cancelled at the time of exportation. We will be pleased to provide you with a quotation upon request.

CONVERSION OF TEMPORARY IMPORTATION TO PERMANENT/FINAL IMPORTATION

If goods imported under ATA carnet and Temporary Import Scheme are sold, GST is payable based on CIF value of goods. GST is levied at 7% (Non-Refundable) of the CIF value. Banking fee is applicable for GST paid on behalf for exhibitors.

INSURANCE

It is the responsibility of exhibitors to arrange for full insurance coverage for their exhibits for the full dual transport ways and duration of the exhibition.

IMPORTANT NOTE

In all instances, the approval of import permits/ licenses is solely at the discretion of the relevant government authorities and we cannot be held responsible for their refusal to grant such permits, even if the product has already arrived in Singapore.

Whilst every effort will be made to clear cargo through to site prior to the opening of the show, no guarantees can be given. Our basic handling and other charges relevant to the consignment will apply regardless of the delivery date to your booth and/or the outcome from the government authorities.
